TO LL 2921 SCREENERS THE DECISION IS IN!

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

March 6, 2015

On March 5, 2015 the Canadian Industrial Relations Board (CIRB) DISMISSED the application from the CAWU to represent the Screeners.

The CIRB unanimously decided that the CAWU application was not supported by valid and reliable evidence.

Quote from the Canada Industrial Relations Board decision:

[21] In this case, the Certificate of Accuracy was signed by a representative of the applicant (CAWU) on January 9, 2015, and submitted to the Board. However, contrary to the statement contained in the certificate, the Board did find that there were improprieties in the collection of the $5.00 membership fee and with the signatures on some membership cards which amount to a substantive defect in the membership evidence submitted in support of the application.

The Board therefore dismisses the application.

Let me take this opportunity to congratulate all of the Screeners at Toronto Pearson and Toronto Island on this victory! It is now important that we remain unified to achieve our negotiation goals.

Thank you for your support!!

In solidarity,

Sam Jabbar
